

THE OLD RECTORY HOTEL & SPA

EMBRACE LAIDBACK LUXURY AT OUR BOUTIQUE BEACH ESCAPE

Bathed in dazzling sunshine, The Old Rectory is a luxurious hideaway just a few sandy steps from the beach in Plettenberg Bay. The charming heritage building – a national monument which has been immaculately restored and reimagined as an enchanting boutique hotel – contains 18 stylish suites as well as a sparkling swimming pool with a shaded deck, a tranquil in-house spa and a beautiful bistro-inspired restaurant.

Plettenberg Bay is a bustling coastal town surrounded by wide, white-sand beaches, the long, narrow Keurbooms Lagoon, dense indigenous forests and the raw beauty of the Robberg Nature Reserve. It is famous for its mild climate and family-friendly atmosphere as well as the opportunity to see marine mammals like whales, seals and dolphins enjoying the warm waters of the Indian Ocean. With its prime Garden Route location, it is an idyllic spot from which to explore this spectacular part of the world.
