

WILDPLACES AFRICA

MAGIC OF UGANDA

Yes, it's gorgeous, breath-taking, and spectacular. But Uganda is so much more than the visual. It's emotional. It's feeling. It's personal. It's the smell of rain on dry grass, the sound of the Nile's roiling rapids, the smile on your face as you walk through a village, talking to the locals, the gut-punch wonder you feel at the sight of a group of Gorillas tumbling through the undergrowth. It's the thrill as you cross the equator, the amazement as you spot yet another incredibly decorative bird through the binoculars, or the sense of accomplishment when hiking the misty mountains. Uganda is a land of contrasts. Come and feel them all.

You'll see what we mean.
