

DUNIA, SERENGETI, TANZANIA

100% WOMEN RUN SERENGETI CAMP

Dunia, in Tanzania's central Serengeti, offers a prime position for safari throughout the year.

Enjoy plentiful resident wildlife without the crowds, exploring the nearby Moru Kopjes in search of lions on the rocks and black rhino roaming the plains. During the annual Great Migration, vast herds of wildebeest move right through the camp.

Dunia is the only camp in Africa run entirely by women and the team is an inspirational example of what women can achieve in a male-dominated industry.

Eight spacious tents overlook the Serengeti National Park's vast golden plains. Kick back on your private terrace or in the open-sided main tent with a chilled G&T and enjoy the peace and stillness. Opt to start your day soaring over the plains in a hot-air balloon and end it dining under the stars in the bush.
