

WELCOME TO WE ARE AFRICA 2026

Dear Tribe,

It is with great pride that we welcome you to the next chapter of We Are Africa, a gathering that has, over the past decade, grown into something far greater than we could have imagined.

As we enter this new phase, now part of the Emerald fold, we do so with confidence and clarity of purpose. This evolution marks not just a milestone for the show, but an opportunity to strengthen our role within the global travel landscape, continuing to elevate Africa's position with the influence and integrity it so richly deserves.

While the world around us may feel uncertain at times, Africa remains a continent of profound resilience and untapped potential. Its ability to thrive lies in the very essence of what brings this tribe together: a shared and unwavering belief in what makes this continent the future of high-end travel.

This is a deeply connected community and a force for good. A space where relationships are forged with intention, where ideas are challenged, and where the collective strength of this tribe continues to push high-end African travel to new heights.

We are also delighted to mark an important leadership moment for the show. As Kathy Brüggemann steps into her role as Associate Event Director of We Are Africa, we have complete confidence in her ability to guide this platform into its next chapter. Her energy, insight, and deep understanding of the community make her uniquely placed to carry this vision forward, and we are excited for what lies ahead under her stewardship.

As always, it is your passion, your commitment, and your belief in Africa that defines We Are Africa. Thank you for continuing to show up, to push boundaries, and to shape an industry that leads with purpose.

Here's to the journey ahead, and to the extraordinary role each of you plays within it.

Warm regards,

Serge Dive

ARE YOU READY TO CELEBRATE...

We're delighted to welcome you, Africa's most impactful travel tribe, as you gather to honour the continent's extraordinary spirit, and shape a purposeful future for our industry.

What began in 2014 as a bold vision to reframe Africa's narrative has become something far greater: a movement grounded in connection, creativity, and a shared belief in the continent's boundless potential and most importantly, telling its story from within.

Today, that spirit continues to evolve. To be Wild With Purpose is to honour Africa's past, protect its present, and shape its future.

Wild With Purpose is more than a theme... It's a reminder that the experiences we create, the partnerships we build, and the stories we tell all have the power to champion a more considered, conscious, and elevated perspective of Africa. It's about embracing the untamed beauty of this continent while treading more thoughtfully within it.

The List is your definitive guide to the exceptional brands that define African travel today. Within these pages, you'll discover the 2026 exhibitors: the visionaries, pioneers, and custodians of some of the continent's most remarkable places and experiences. Together, you are not only elevating African luxury but redefining it with intention, integrity, and innovation.

Take it with you. Share it with your teams. Let it spark new ideas, new journeys, and new ways of thinking.

Cheers to you, tribe – may your week be as wild as Africa!
