

TUTWA DESERT LODGE

Greater Augrabies, Northern Cape, South Africa

GOING WHERE YOU'VE NEVER BEEN

A serene sanctuary on an unblemished tract of the Green Kalahari. Guests have the pleasure of a unique private wilderness safari on a 16 000ha reserve. A rewarding wilderness encounter features safari drives, nature paddles, birding and interactive conservation experiences. Tutwa is deeply engaged in the conservation of the area's leopards and its fauna and flora in general. The reserve has 24km of Orange River frontage; a source of life and bounty in a wild, and ancient desert.

Join us for 2 days to discover an relatively unknown corner of Africa – the remote and spectacular Northern Cape . Visit the Augrabies Falls, enjoy game viewing a unique landscape, track the elusive leopard in the rocky crags and the highlight of all – spend a day ‘doing the Orange’ a full days paddling in on a remote and spectacular stretch of the Orange River – truly a bucket list item for everyone.
